ONLINE FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME ON MOODLE-LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS IN COLLABORATION WITH IIT, BOMBAY

UGC-HRDC, University of Kashmir is contemplating to organize a week-long online Faculty Development Programme during the last week of October, 2020 based on Spoken Tutorials in collaboration with IIT Bombay on "Moodle-based Learning Management Systems". Characteristic features and benefits of the proposed Spoken Tutorial+FDP are shown as under:

Brief ST Program Details + FDP Features & Benefits:

Spoken Tutorial (ST), IIT Bombay is a highly successful and useful IT/Software/E-Tutorial course MOOCs program being offered by IIT Bombay- Spoken Tutorial (ST) project-(http://spoken-tutorial.org).

- Spoken Tutorial E-tutor comes under NMEICT, MHRD, Govt. of India and is endorsed by AICTE, SWAYAM and PMMMNMTT
- Through the Self-Paced Audio-Video Tutorials prepared by IIT Bombay, participants can learn through distant learning mode as per their own convenience. Very apt during this lockdown situation.
- IIT Bombay has over 70+ lucrative courses imparting skills and knowledge, very useful for all Arts, Science, Commerce teachers too. Moodle LMS, R Programming, C, C ++, Java, LaTeX are some of them. (E-Brochure link)
- The award winning IITB-ST E-Learning MOOCs training is the need of the hour for all. Individual faculty registration is available at Rs.500/ per faculty / per course of good value.
- Faculty will get hands-on practical skills and knowledge.
- The FDP will take care of fulfilling their in- Service Training or short term course requirement which will further help in their career advancement and for NAAC review too.
- FDP can be planned for 2/ 3 days or 1-2 weeks where faculty can learn, practice, take a test and get certificates from ST IIT-B.
- After the program is over, Participation Certificate will be issued to all the participants besides a Letter of Certification of the FDP describing the number of persons who participated in the various sessions, courses covered and other details.

Those college and university teachers who are interested to attend the above-mentioned online Spoken Tutorial+FDP are requested to register their expression of interest by sending an email at asc@kashmiruniversity.ac.in showing their willingness to attend the course by or before October 15th, 2020. Depending upon the number of Expressions of Interest received UGC-HRDC, University of Kashmir will decide about the conduct of this course and chalk out the further course of action. Duration of the course will be one week (six days) and a non-refundable registration of Rs. 500/- will have to be paid before registration for the course. Links to the videos of pre-recorded lectures will be made available by IIT Bombay that can be viewed by the participants as per their own convenience during the week-long duration of the course.
